

Children in the City

<P>This is a combined work concerning children's lives in contemporary cities, bringing together international scholars at the forefront of the debate. It provides a forum for presenting and ref

