Indian-Made: Navajo Culture in the Marketplace, 1868-1940 - Erika Bsumek

Breaks new ground in exploring the complex link between Indian identity and the emergence of tourism in the Southwest, the layers of meaning that surrounded the branding process of "Indian-Made" goods.