In 1967 Karl Rahner famously wrote: The economic Trinity is the immanent Trinity, and vice versa. From that time onwards, Rahner's Rule has become the norm for conceiving the relationship between the