The Arts and the Definition of the Human: Toward a Philosophical Anthropology - Joseph Margolis

In The Arts and the Definition of the Human, Margolis introduces a novel theory of the human person or self as a historical artifact and argues that important topics in the philosophy of art, p