

Democracy, Culture, Catholicism: Voices from Four Continents

An investigation into the different relationships between democracy, culture, and Catholicism found in the religious, social, political, and cultural contexts of four nation-states: Indonesia, Lithuan

