Poverty and the Policy Response to the Economic Crisis in Liberia: A Strategic Guide for the Institutionalization of National Health Accounts - Quentin Wodon

Despite substantial progress towards peace, economic growth, and better governance since 2003, Liberia remains one of the poorest countries in the world. The objective of this study is twofold. Firs