

Children and Youth on the Front Line: Ethnography, Armed Conflict and Displacement

War leads not just to widespread death but also to extensive displacement, overwhelming fear, and economic devastation. It weakens social ties, threatens household survival and undermines the fam

