This manual teaches students with no previous experience or knowledge of the languages in carefully graded stages and by examples or exercises and focuses on everyday Afrikaans conversation and pronun