

Applied ethics and social problems: Moral question of birth, society and death - Tony Fitzpatrick

Applied ethics and social problems presents introductions to the three most influential moral philosophies and relates these to some of the most urgent questions in contemporary public debates about t

