

Between the Psyche and the Polis: Refiguring History in Literature and Theory - Anne Whitehead

This title was first published in 2000. Incorporating studies of Freudian and Marxist approaches to questions of history and memory, this timely collection illuminates how history is being refigured i

