

Breaking Through the Stained Glass Ceiling: Women Religious Leaders in Their Own Words

This lively and inspiring collection of interviews features the voices of the most important women religious figures of our time, addressing the theme of women's emerging leadership within a variety of

