

Communicating with children and young people: Making a difference - Michelle Lefevre

This timely book prepares social workers and other practitioners for the challenge of engaging directly with children and young people in order to make a difference to their lives.

Author: Lefevre, M

