Integrated Natural Resource Management in the Highlands of Eastern Africa: From Concept to Practice

This book documents a decade of research, methodological innovation, and lessons learned in an eco-regional research-for-development program operating in the eastern African highlands, the African...