Modern Spatiotemporal Geostatistics - George Christakos

Scholarly introductory treatment explores the role of modern geostatistics in improved mathematical models of scientific mapping, focusing on the Bayesian maximum entropy approach for spatial predictability.