Persons in Communion: Trinitarian Description and Human Participation - Alan J. Torrance

Explores the structure of human participation in the triune life. Focuses on the question of describing the 'members' of the Trinity as 'persons'; how language functions in describing God in such term