

Commissioning for health and well-being: An introduction PDF Download

This is the first comprehensive text on commissioning for health and social care taking students, practitioners and managers through key stages of the commissioning cycle as well as addressing cross-c

